Welcome to the 111th Annual Meeting

The Texas State Historical Association returns to San Antonio for the 2007 Annual Meeting, which makes the Crowne Plaza Hotel on the Riverwalk its home base for the three-day event. The Program Committee has done an excellent job of organizing this year’s program, resulting in more than forty sessions covering a broad range of topics in Texas history, and offering a selection in which both the academic historian and the lay enthusiast can find much to choose from. Take a look at the particulars and you will discover numerous opportunities to learn more about what has happened over the centuries to make us who we are today.

Red McCombs, renowned businessman and philanthropist, will speak at the Book Lovers’ & Texana Collectors’ Breakfast on Friday morning. An avid collector of Texana, Mr. McCombs will share his considerable knowledge of Texas and its treasures in his speech “Tell Me More About Texas,” spiced with anecdotes from his years of collecting.

Elizabeth Crook, author of The Night Journal and The Raven's Bride: A Novel of Eliza Allen and Sam Houston, will be our guest speaker at the Friday Women and Texas History Luncheon. Following her talk the Liz Carpenter Award will be presented for the best scholarly book on the history of women and Texas published during the past year.

Those attending the President’s Reception on Friday evening can expect an unusual treat. We will meet at the Southwest School of Art & Craft for an evening of soft music and great food under a canopy of trees in the gardens as we honor our incoming president, Jesús F. (Frank) de la Teja.

I thank the members of the 2007 Annual Meeting Program Committee: Ty Cashion (chair), T. Lindsay Baker, David Blanke, Light T. Cummins, Yvonne D. Frear, Marise McDermott, Mike Parrish, Gene Preuss, Paul Spellman, Elizabeth Hayes Turner, Karen T. Wiggins, and Emilio Zamora. They worked hard throughout the year to create a great program.

Please make plans to celebrate Texas History Month with your friends by attending the Association’s Annual Meeting.

Larry McNeill
